DEACONS, USHERS, & GREETERS

Nancy Lawson, Beth Marascio, and Sue Tonkiss

Today's Chancel Flowers are given by Robert Clark, in celebration of the wedding of Robert and Sebastian.

WARM CLOTHING DRIVE NOW EXTENDED TO NOVEMBER 13!

Good news folks! We are extending the Warm Clothing Drive one more week to Saturday, November 13. Please bring your clean, gently-used, warm, winter jackets, coats, gloves, hoodies, boots, snow suits, etc. for men, women, and children to the church. The Social Action team will distribute them to our shelters and to those in need. Now, there's a warm thought! For questions, call/text/contact Mattie, at 774.217.3477.

VETERANS APPRECIATION 2021

For many years, we have collaborated on an event to support our area veterans—a meal and speaker most times, and, last year, a meal delivered. This year, we are trying something different we hope will be a meaningful expression of our gratitude. On Thursday, November 11, we hope to deliver a bag of homemade cookies, along with a handmade card to veterans in the area. We also hope to distribute these at the Veterans Memorial Park dedication that morning.

See your Wednesday Email for complete details and the 4 ways you can help.

ORDER CHANCEL FLOWERS ONLINE

You may now order Chancel flowers online, via our website. Go to plymouthchurchframingham.org and click on the "Church Family" tab. Upon receipt of your order, the Church Office will confirm your date.

DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

It's time to to deck the halls. We are looking for volunteers to help. Decorating takes place between November 21-27.

FOODIE SALE...TODAY, AFTER WORSHIP

This Sunday, after worship, we will hold a Foodie/Goodie/Bake Sale to support Haiti. Sandy Clarke and Mattie Schadt are heading up this effort in support of Elaine Lowell's Golden Ticket project. This is a traditional, in-person sale, not online, as we held during COVID. We will wear masks and keep a safe distance as much as possible.

FALL LEAF-RAKING...SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20 AND SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21

Meet at The Plymouth Church
Saturday (8:45 a.m./12:45 p.m.) and Sunday (12:45 p.m.)

Be part of a caring community and help older residents in need of your services. Organized by the Framingham Council on Aging, The Callahan Center. Sam Swisher will take sign-ups via email over the next weeks at ccvolrec@gmail.com.

ONLINE HOME COOKING SALE

Just in time for Christmas!

Hark!!! Just in time for Christmas is our second Online Home Cooking Sale, including hand-crafted gifts! During the week of December 4 through 11, you will be able to order your treats and gifts online, directly from the Plymouth Church website. Pickup will be at the church on December 12. What would you like to make? We're looking for soups, pies, breads, sweets...as well as hand crafted items. Look for the easy on-line entry form in next week's Wednesday Email to sign up. (Deadline for submissions is Monday, November 29.) Please contact Sue Tonkiss or Sydney Turner if you have any questions.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude

Chorale Prelude on Psalm 23:4, Wagner

"Thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Welcome & Announcements

Responsive Prayer of Invocation

One: Behold! A new heaven and a new earth.
The first heaven and the first earth have passed away,
and the sea is no more.

All: All is loss and calamity. Our souls cry out in pain and anguish.

One: Fear not! A holy city, a new Jerusalem, emerges from God, prepared for you and for all God's people.

All: How can we trust that we have a home in the kingdom that is to come?

One: Trust in the Lord, who declares it: "The home of God is among mortals.
I will dwell with you to wipe every tear from your eyes. Death will be no more;
mourning, crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

All: We gather this morning to believe and to learn how to believe in this good news.

One: And God said, "See, I am making all things new. My words are trustworthy and true. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty
I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."

(Revelation 21:1-6)

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing 475

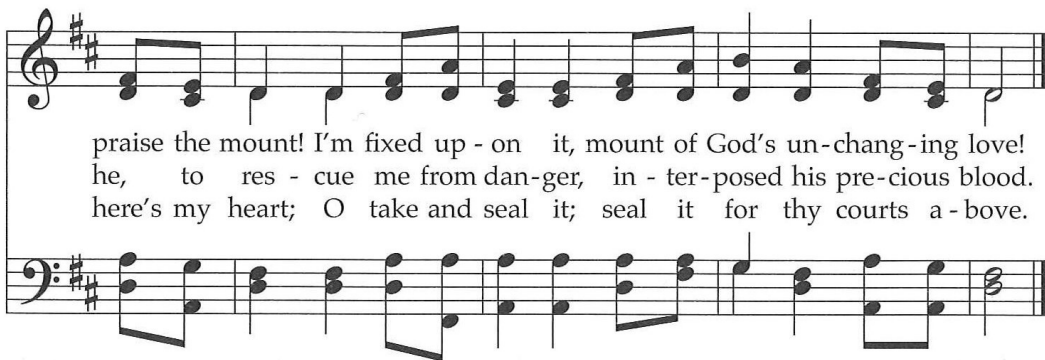

1 Come, thou Fount of ev-ery bless-ing; tune my heart to sing thy grace;
 2 Here I raise my Eb - e - ne - zer; hith - er by thy help I'm come;
 3 O to grace how great a debt - or dai - ly I'm con - strained to be!

streams of mer - cy, nev - er ceas - ing, call for songs of loud - est praise.
 and I hope, by thy good plea - sure, safe - ly to ar - rive at home.
 Let that grace now, like a fet - ter, bind my wan - dering heart to thee.

Teach me some me - lo - dious son - net, sung by flam - ing tongues a - bove;
 Je - sus sought me when a strang - er, wan - dering from the fold of God;
 Prone to wan - der, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;

praise the mount! I'm fixed up - on it, mount of God's un - chang - ing love!
 he, to res - cue me from dan - ger, in - ter - posed his pre - cious blood.
 here's my heart; O take and seal it; seal it for thy courts a - bove.

Written for Pentecost by a British Baptist pastor, this text is full of biblical terms like "Ebenezer" (1 Samuel 7:12), Hebrew for "a stone of help" set up to give thanks for God's assistance. The tune name honors hymnal compiler Asahel Nettleton, who probably did not compose it.
